

Addendum No.3 – Responses to Questions

MOSH Genesis
Architectural & Engineering Services

RFQ#: AES-MOSH2024

1. Hard Copy: Can you please clarify if we need a wet signature?

Please include a wet signature on the one “ORIGINAL” copy as noted in the RFQ.

2. Six scanned copies in PDF format: Do these PDFs have to be literally scanned documents? In lieu of scanning, can we simply save the PDF file onto the USB Drive?

PDF. copies on 6 separate USB Drives is the request. They do not literally need to be scanned, just electronic copies of your submission.

3. One Redacted scanned copy: Is this a hard copy or a PDF on a USB drive?

Hard copies are printed copies of your submission.

4. One Redacted scanned copy: Does this have to be a scanned document? In lieu of scanning, can we simply save the PDF file onto the USB Drive?

The redacted copy should be a printed hard copy of your submission.

5. Business Licenses: Will ALL subcontractors on the team be required to fill out these forms or just the prime architect?

Just the prime architect or contracting party.

6. “Contractor shall provide current proof of all business licenses required by local, state, and federal law as applicable.” Will ALL subcontractors on the team be required to fill out these forms or just the prime architect?

Just the prime architect or contracting party. It will be the responsibility of the contracting party to ensure that all sub consultants have all licenses as required.

7. Is it MOSH’s preference to have a single contract agreement or—if multiple architects team up for this opportunity—are you open to contracting separately with both parties?

MOSH will have one contract with the prime architect (contracting party).

8. We understand that any questions or requested modifications to the RFQ and Section 3 General Terms and Conditions of Agreement should be sent directly to you. Is there an anticipated period for negotiations? Will questions/requests from all respondents be made public?

We will post general clarifications received as addendums. Negotiations will occur only with the highest ranked firm during the contract negotiation period.

9. Is there an anticipated or final date for issuance of Addenda?

Addenda will continuously be added as new questions/clarifications are presented. Please check regularly for any new addenda.
